

PLEASE PRAY 30 OCTOBER 2011

PRAISE GOD:

- That Jesus is the Lord and He reigns on High
- That Jesus is the Light of the World who stepped down into darkness
- That Jesus is the Word of God the Father, since before the world began

PLEASE PRAY FOR:

- Each of us, as we return our 'Giving for All' responses, that we might be faithful and joyful in our commitment to financially support the ongoing mission and ministry of All Saints'
- For our prayerful and careful reflection on how we will personally respond to the 'Open for All' initiative, too, with its exclusive focus at this stage on the re-development of the Church Hall into the new All Saints' Centre
- The Mischief Night youth event today at St Stephen's and the Light Party for All Hallows E'en at All Saints' on Monday, and for Becca and her team involved in both, that children and young people will be blessed as they celebrate all that is good about God and the light that He brings into people through Jesus Christ
- Ruth Scott as she begins work this week as our new Church Administrator, thanking God for her many gifts and praying for her as she shapes this important role in our mission and ministry
- The Salisbury Trustees of Childwall CE Primary School as they meet on Wednesday night, and for Bill Addy as he leads the meeting in his capacity as President
- The people and government of Turkey following the tragic earthquake this week, especially those who have lost family members and the rescuers who are working in such difficult conditions.
- The ministry and mission of Christian actors, poets, writers and playwrights, thanking God for the ways in which they can speak into and help re-shape contemporary culture through their values and concerns
- Those who are sick, anxious or undergoing medical procedures at this time.
- Those who are bereaved, or who remember the anniversary of a bereavement at this time.

Collect for Nineteenth Sunday after Trinity

Faithful Lord,
whose steadfast love never ceases
and whose mercies never come to an end:
grant us the grace to trust you and to receive the gifts of your love, new every morning, in Jesus Christ our Lord Amen
