

CollectThe Sixth Sunday of Easter

God our redeemer, you have delivered us from the power of darkness and brought us into the kingdom of your Son: grant, that as by his death he has recalled us to life, so by his continual presence in us he may raise us to eternal joy; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

Roots PrayersA Gathering Prayer

Loving God, as we gather in this our place of prayer and worship, we pray for those gathered in their special places, wherever they are in the world – in ones and twos, tens and twenties, or hundreds and thousands. May our praise and our prayers overspill into the streets and the cities, the fields and the lanes, so that a continual chorus of thanksgiving will echo in every corner of the earth, and your name be exulted in all the world.

Amen

A Prayer of Confession

God of openness and love, there have been times when we have wanted to be only with our own circle of friends, and have not been willing to look beyond ourselves to welcome others whom you love.

Forgive us, and unlock our hearts and minds, that we may be inclusive and daring, and willing to go where you would lead, and meet with those you have called; for the sake of your kingdom.

Amen

A Sending Out Prayer

Take the baton of hope with you and pass it on.
Take the baton of faith and pass it on.
Take the baton of peace and pass it on.
Take the baton of openness to God's Holy Spirit and pass it on.
In Jesus' name.

Amen

New Prayer Diary

The latest Prayer Diary will be available at the back of Church from Sunday 19 May after the services. Unfortunately, due to the new Data Protection legislation, only those people who have signed the consent form can receive a copy. Mary Harrison and Barbara Critchley will be on hand to provide advice.

When you collect a copy of the diary, please consider how you use it.

- ◆ Do you just use it as a telephone directory?
- ◆ Do you use it daily as part of your prayer?
- ◆ Will you use it as part of your prayer time?
- ◆ If you use it as a directory, will you pray for that person or others on the page?
